Buffett - Frisco - Tailgate - Concert

Friday, noon-ish, we arrived to get things set up but it was still wet from the previous night's storm. It was also still cloudy and the forecast predicted rain Friday night so we held off setting anything up except for the essentials. Throughout that afternoon some Tulsa Parrot Heads started arriving. That evening there was a free concert in the parking lot and still more TPHC folks showed up. The skies were clear and it was a beautiful evening. A lot of people around us went ahead and set up their tents and booths thinking, "no way is it going to rain". Well, later that night it rained. It blew. It stormed.

Saturday morning the rain tapered off around 11am. I was the first to show up around 11:30am. The ground was still wet but there was no more rain in the forecast and luckily everything we had left there the night before was still there. Dave and Cathy showed up shortly after I did and we started setting everything up. The poor folks that had set up the night before were busy picking up mangled tent frames and wringing out everything they had left outside.

From that point on, the tailgate party was in full swing. Thanks to the rain and the clouds it wasn't as hot as previous years. A few of our group were lucky enough to see Jimmy Buffett as his tour bus rolled into the stadium. He sat up front and waved at all the spectators as he passed.

Soon enough it was time for the concert. We all rushed to get to our seats and I must say we really had some great seats this time. Huey Lewis did a wonderful job opening for J. B.. Then, just as Jimmy took the stage, the sky cleared up and there wasn't a cloud to be seen. It was a beautiful evening. Jimmy was great as always. Then, all too soon, it came to an end.

After the concert everyone headed back to our tented area and started picking up and tearing down the tents and tables. David Boley went over the next morning and picked up all the coolers and tents and tables and anything else that was left behind. Thanks Dave!! And Thanks to everyone else who helped with the tents, ice and everything.

So one more Jimmy Buffet Tailgate Party is laid to rest - that is - until next year.

The one word that best describes this year's Phlocking at the Phort Golf Tournament...

HOT!

Although we had to change venues for both events (pre-party & Tourney) it all seemed to go pretty well - but I was just a spectator. The real work was handled by our devoted officers and volunteers to who we all owe a great big THANK YOU!

The Pre-Party had a huge turnout, filling up the patio at Grumpy's in no time. At one point it even spilled out onto the parking lot - but the Bar management put the kibosh on that. For the amount of people we had, the crew at Grumpy's did a great job with the drinks and food. Thanks Grumpy's.

The Golf Tournament!

Did I mention it was HOT!? It was a beautiful Saturday morning - until you stepped outside.

Bright and early the volunteers were busy setting up tables, putting out the silent auction items, filling coolers, registering golfers, etc.. Soon after arriving the hole volunteers set out to their respective holes to get everything ready for the golfers. A lot of volunteers decorated tents and set up fun little side games for the golfers to enjoy. And the rest just complained about the heat and tried to find any shade they could. Some of the golfers spent this time decorating their golf carts.

After all the golfers had registered they jumped in their golf carts and headed off to their first tee only to have to turn back to go listen to the safety rules. After that, the tournament was off and running. Throughout the day the TPHC officers were kept busy running ice, drinks, food and whatever else the volunteers needed out to their holes. Meanwhile, in all that heat and absolutely no trace of a breeze, John Hedge & Joe Vaughn were cooking up burgers and hot dogs for everyone. Thank you both!

The golfers all seemed to have a great time. I can tell you from our hole - the Longest Drive/Toilet Hole - we had several golfers who did surprising well.

Things started wrapping up around 2 or 3 o'clock and it was back to the Club House to sort out the winners and not so losers AND to cool off the best you could. Some credit needs to go to the folks at Clary Field. They put up with our club and some rowdy golfers all in stride. From what I saw of the golf course it was really nice. Thank you Clary Field!

The golf tournament raised $10,500. A check will be presented to the Tulsa Cerebral Palsy Association at the Boley Bash. So all in all, and despite the heat, it really was a good time all 'round. Thanks again for everyone's support.

SPENNER'S FOURTH OF JULY EXTRAVAGANZA!!

Yes, it's that time of year again when Greg, Katy and Angelique pull out all the stops and put on one of the best 4th of July parties you will ever attend. This may sound like a lot a high fallutin' hyperbole but you ain't seen nothin' 'till you've experienced one of Greg's fireworks displays.

For the past six years they have been putting on a 4th of July party and every year it just gets bigger and better.

They will provide pulled pork sandwiches. So bring a side dish, your favorite adult beverage, lawn chairs, blankets, the family and be prepared to have a great time.

July 4th, 6:30ish until the fireworks are spent.

WHAT THE...?

Well, no one took me up on my challenge last month to decipher the theme and to name the people pictured in last month's banner (shown below). I will take solace in the thought that perhaps the quiz was 'too difficult' instead of thinking that 'no one gave a damn'. With that in mind I will break down last month's quiz/banner for all my loyal readers.

The theme of course was People Named 'June'. The challenge was to name all five (even one or two would have been fine) of the people pictured.

So I challenge you again to decipher this month's banner. The first person to figure it out and send their answer to TPHC@tulsaparrotheads.com, or tell me in person, will get their name printed in great big letters in next month's newsletter.

So get those thinking caps on!

LATE BREAKING NEWS!!

We do have a Winner in last month's "What The...?" Contest!

Boley Bash

August 15th
The biggest party of the year.

August is just around the corner and that can only mean one thing - the Boley Bash!!

Bring a chair, side-dish, swimsuit, your favorite beverage and cool off by the pool.

An assortment of smoked beef and left over beer (from golf tournament) will be provided.

The festivities will begin around 4pm and end when the Boley's turn out the lights.

Update

Recently a few Parrot Heads attended the 'Bowl for Kids Sake Wrap-Up Luncheon' held at Baxter's Interurban. The purpose of the luncheon was to thank everyone for participating in this year's BFKS. Awards were handed out to the companies/organizations that raised the most.

I'm proud to say that out of a total of 49 organizations the Tulsa Parrot Heads were in the top ten with $4,461.

The total overall for this years BFKS came to $199,363

A Big Thanks to everyone who donated/participated in this years BFKS. Good Job!

Raffle News

We raised $203 in the June raffle which was matched by an anonymous benefactor (Thank You!) at $101 for a total of $304. Proceeds went to Tulsa Animal Shelter. From picking up stray animals, reuniting lost pets with owners, to finding new homes for unwanted pets, our employees are dedicated to the health and wellbeing of our animals.

It was another 'Ok' raffle last month - I didn't win anything. But everyone else seemed to have a wonderful time. But the important thing is we raised money for a great cause.

Thank You! to all those who donated gifts: Randel and Kathi Renegar, Jess and Mary Mitchell, Mike Smith and Margene McKenzie, Becky Eagan, Mike Weaver, Rebecca Land, Mitch, Ron and Jeanette North, Greg Spetter, Tom Tirrell, Vicky Courtney, Jodie Rogers, Rick Zickafoose, Mike Casillas, Robbie Thames, Jack Kelsey.
