Party with a Purpose!

December 2015

TPHC Volunteers

Saturday, November 21st a group of Parrot Heads volunteered at the Emergency Infant Services (EIS) of Tulsa. The EIS provides clothing, food, diapers and general help to families in need. Families are able to walk in and get the help they need once every three months. Their facility is set up more like a store so the families don't have to dig through boxes or rummage for the items they so desperately need. Which, we all thought, was a nice touch.

That is what we helped with - sorting clothes and coats, hanging them on hangers and arranging them by size. This being so close to Christmas we sorted through boxes and boxes of Christmas themed clothing and accessories of all sizes. One group sorted coats and another group sorted and hung up clothes in the 'Boutique'.

Then we completed our day of selfless giving with refreshments at McNellie's.

Sorting, posing and learning about EIS.

November's Meeting: TPH's Annual Canned Food Drive

..was a big success! We collected a couple hundred canned food items and lots of dry food items and several dessert.

All the donated items went to the American Legion's food bank. The dessert items went towards the free Veteran's Day luncheon they held the following day.

The Tulsa Parrot Heads Club would like to take this opportunity to proudly honor the Veterans in our club.

The 24th Meeting of the Minds A Salty Piece of Land Key West 2015

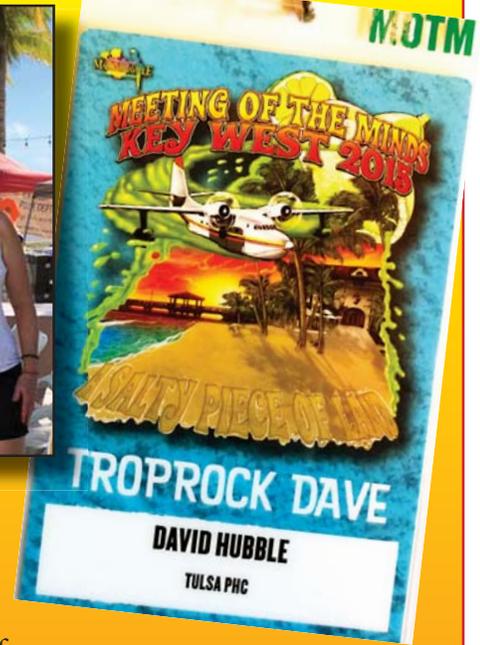

By: David and Therese Hubble

Meeting of the Minds is a gathering and phlocking of Parrot Heads and Trop Rock music lovers.

Therese and I had a great time chatting and sharing stories and consuming “boat drinks” with club members from around the US and Canada.

This year we were treated with Jimmy taking the main stage and performing the entire album; A White Sport Coat and a Pink Crustacean. This was his second studio album, and at the time (as Jimmy stated) had very little success, but went on to become one of his most successful. One of his most successful songs, “Why don't we get drunk and Screw”, was very close to not making the record. The record label was not sure if the public was ready for his lyrical style and informed him that this type of song could ruin his musical career. At which point he commented “What career”! This was the start of Jimmy controlling his own destiny. This was also the first record that Jimmy’s back-up was referred to as “The Coral Reefer Band”. During the show he did mention that he did pay the mini-mart back by sliding $200.00 under the door.

BTW-the main stage was on the beach! Beach, music, friends and beverages; does not get much better than that.

The street party was great fun, lots of music and Phlocking.

During MOTM two of our

TPHC members (Sarah and Alex) shared a very special occasion - but you'll have to ask them about that.

Jimmy Buffett and The Coral Reefer Band!

MOTM is also one of the best events to experience other great musical acts such as: Sunny Jim, Aaron Scherz, Thom Sheperd, Jerry Diaz, Southern Drawl Band, Mac McAnally, Jim Hoehn, Don Middlebrook, Tall Paul and Ramajay Intercostal, The Boat Drunks, John Frinzi along with

The Shrimper Dan Band, The Sauce Boss (yes, he did make gumbo on stage; which he shared with all), Howard Livingston, Jimmy Parrish and the Waves Band, and most of the current and past members of The Coral Reefer Band.

Meeting of the Minds should be a bucket list for all Parrot Heads. The music is great but being able to catch up with PH friends and being able to make new friends is priceless.

Peter Mayer's Stars and Promises Tour 2015

Peter Mayer is once again bringing his FREE Christmas Music with a message tour to Tulsa's Venue 68 on December

18th, 7-10pm. (donations accepted at the door)

"This year we've named our tour "Stars and Promises 2015 – "A Restless World, A Silent Night." We are fine tuning our songs, setting the stage and rehearsing to bring you our very best. We will be hitting the road next week and hope to see many of you at our upcoming concerts.

This year's musician lineup includes Yours Truly; Chris Walters on piano and keyboards; Zeb Briskovich on bass; Brendan Mayer on guitar and vocals; Melodie Chase on cello; Eric Darken on percussion; and Mark Holland on flutes.

Chad Stewart and his crew from Stewart Sound will be along with us, adding a creative touch to the stage, sound and lighting, as always. Our Road Manager, Beth Estes will be doing her part to keep us on schedule and taking care of the behind the scenes details, as she does so well." (Peter Mayer)

So come out and celebrate the season with some great music and good phriends. We hope to have a large Parrot Head showing this year.
