JUNE 2016

May Phlocking

TPHC Birthday Conga Line

May was our Birthday month. The Tulsa Parrot Head's Club turned 23 this past May. Our meeting was at the "5 o'Clock Somewhere Bar" at River Spirit Casino. There was live music provided by the "Something Steel" band. Live music, dancing, cake - who could ask for anything more?

The band and our meeting started a little earlier than usual (about 6:30) so the place didn't really start filling up until around 7-7:30. But no matter, we all had fun.

At some point a conga line started up - lead by George Salley - that took some crazy twists and turns through and around the tables and chairs.

The band was great. They played until about 9:30. Luckily the "TPHC Bitter Enders" were there and stayed to the very last note.

Scott Kirby House Concert

May 22nd was the Scott Kirby House Concert hosted by Kathi and Randel Renegar. And it was a perfect evening for an outdoor concert. About 35 Parrot Heads were in attendance to hear some great original music from Scott Kirby.

Everyone started arriving about 4pm while Scott was setting up and doing his sound checks. Randel Renegar had spent the day smoking some beef brisket and doing a little yard work.

People started setting up their chairs and arranging their coolers for easy access. Luckily there was a slight overcast so there were really no hot spots in the Renegar's big beautiful backyard. About the time everyone got settled Scott began to play.

Scott played some songs from his newest CD that he recorded with his friend Peter Mayer from the "J.B. Coral Reef-er Band". As expected his music was wonderful.

Between sets we all had a chance to get some food and taste the brisket Randel had cooked as well as the many side dishes brought by everyone. Cody Shoulder's daughter created a beautiful fruit centerpiece with chocolate covered strawberries.

After some food and refreshments Scott took to the stage for a second set. He was taking requests and playing a few cover songs (most notably an acoustic version of "Summer Wind").

It was a great evening full of wonderful music, good food and beverages, dancing and a little swinging.

A great big Thank You to our hosts the Renegars and also to Scott Kirby. We've got to do it again real soon.

Welcome New Members!

Be sure to seek out these new members at our next meeting and welcome them personally...

Rick Turley, Jeff Norman & Lisa Norman, Monte Moore & Shayne Moore

June 14th is Flag Day.

The American Legion Post will be having a flag retiring ceremony. Bring old tattered flags to be properly retired.

“The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem of display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.” -The United States Flag Code, Title 4, Section 8k

It's really an informal ceremony with a few minutes for a “speech” then the guys burn the flags which takes a while.

This is in no way affiliated with ISIS or any other anti-American organization.
