June Phlocking

Stumbling Monkey Bar & Grill

The June phlocking was the final club meeting before our annual Phlocking at the Phort golf tournament. We started the evening with members arriving early to drop-off their Liquor Store Challenge and various other donated items. Thanks to everyone who participated in the contest and the rest of you who provided prizes for the tournament. You ALL did a fabulous job again this year. The winner of the Liquor Store Challenge was Kristin and Shane Clark with a cool cooler from Liquids Wine and Spirits in Owasso. Congratulations to the Clark's!!!

While some of our phlock dropped-off donations, others setup for the mini silent auction. We auctioned off some really cool stuff while raising $807 for our charity the Tulsa Cerebral Palsy Association.

By the end of the night we had sixty-five members sign-in at the meeting. Another great turnout with lots of planning going on for the golf tournament.

Phlocking at the PHORT

The Phlocking at the Phort kickoff started on Friday evening with dinner at the Elks Lodge. Jodie Rogers had the silent auction set-up so we could begin collecting bids. Soon the games began and we started collecting money for our tournament charity Tulsa Cerebral Palsy Association.

Saturday morning started off amazing. The temperature outside had you asking, "Is this really the middle of June? Overcast skies with temperatures in the mid-60s." Volunteers started arriving about 7:30 and began making their way to their respective holes to setup. People, we had some great volunteer holes this year!

Volunteers on hole #1, the Longest Drive from the Toilet, were Gary Orton, Rick Kingery, Kim King, and Jan Wollenschlager. Their Bloody Mary's were really YUMMY!! The longest drive winners were Beth Brock and Brad Irwin.

Phlocking at the PHORT part II

The volunteers on hole #3 claimed the "Best Decorated Hole" award this year.. Mike and Erin Casillas, Robbie Thames, Amy Gray, and Judy Striegel had quite a collection of things to offer the golfers. Really, Bra Pong, Lime Putt and Pitch, a Tiki Bar, a Spinning Shot Chair, and Candy the Mannequin were just a few of the things they had happening at this hole.

Katy Spetter, Tammi Johnson, and Moo Devasher provided those dangerous Hurricanes at Hole #5. This was a closest to the pin hole won by John Gonzalez.

Hole #6, the lake hole, had volunteers from the Wagoner Parrot Head Club. They served Moose Milk shots while trying to avoid golf ball attacks from the tee box on top of the hill above.

Hole #8 had a swimming pool setup to cool off the golfers. Fortunately for the golfers it was not necessary this year. Cold towels on the golfers' neck was still a nice touch. Carol Jones, Becky Eagan, Stacy DeMas, and Carol Benton served Island Girls to the golfers.

There was a ton of action on hole #10. You could use the Plumber's Putter to knock a putt into the Outhouse while enjoying some Apple Pie Moonshine. Then you had a chance to win a Cadillac with a hole in one. Unfortunately no golfer sunk one this year, but there is always next year. George Rice, Arlene Stutzman, Cindy Kramer and Angela Bryant-Brown worked this hole.

Volunteers from Stillhouse were right next door managing the angry golfers contest. Thanks to the Stillhouse Girls for climbing the hill all day retrieving golf clubs. The winner of the Angry Golfer prize was Cole Evans.

Ring a Flamingo to reveal your drink was the theme of hole #13. George and Carla McMillen and Jorja and Kristen Vermillion did an excellent job of providing rubber putter instructions, providing drinks, and managing the rubber putter hole.

Soon you were on hole #15 where golfers could enjoy playing Beer Pong. Kathleen Watts, Alisa Zucker, Angie Line Fran Zahn, and Shelli Meadows worked this hole as the Jello Shots flowed.

Hole #16 was a fabulous hole. Where can you find a "Sobriety Check Point" where they hand out Felonies and Misdemeanors in the form of Shots after you failed to walk the squiggly white line. Vicki Eberle, Vicky Courtney, Beth Dee, and Rebecca Land patrolled this hole.

Another closest to the pin hole was located at hole #17. The closest to the pin winner for this hole was Kelly Green. Moe and Pat Hogan had some tasty John Daly's and some Rum flavored cigars available on this hole for a charitable donation.

And then there was the final hole, #18, where beads were available with either a Fireball or a Tequila shot. Teresa Bacon, Debbie Olson, Debbie Knight, and Cindy Russell did a great job working this hole.

A BIG THANK YOU to all the volunteers! Without YOU, this golf tournament would not be possible. You raised a record $2,843 at your holes this year. WOW, that's amazing. Also, a special thanks to Jodie Rogers for helping Cathy with about anything she needed done.

John Hedge, Glenda and Joe Vaughn, and Kellie Heflin did an awesome job with lunch this year. The Tacos and Nachos were a big hit. The Taco Cart providing special delivery to the golfers and volunteers on the golf course during the day was a nice added touch. Thanks for taking care of our lunch. Everyone definitely appreciated it.

We had 29 golf teams this year. The golfers seemed to enjoy themselves despite the seven hour round of golf. Thanks to all the golfers who supported all the volunteers hard work with their donations throughout the day. All money will be going to TCPA.

The first place Sandbaggers' trophy went to Lance Whittaker's team with a score of 58. And the biggest winners of the day, for the beloved 13th place trophy, was Casey Vining's team with a score of 68.

There was a tie for the best decorated golf cart this year. Awards went to both John Sparkman's team and Scotty Banks' team.

Our silent auction figures are still coming in as some people have not yet picked-up their prizes. Thanks to everyone who helped get prizes for the auction and to Jodie Rogers for organizing it.

Thanks for all who sponsored holes and those who helped get hole sponsors. We had 50 hole sponsors this year.

In the end, we had many Parrot Heads who really helped out this year and the President really appreciated EVERYONES help!

And now, drum roll please.....

We set a new fundraising record by raising over $13,000 this year. A check will be presented to TCPA at the Boley Bash on Aug 19th.

AND, from all TPHC members, a great big THANK YOU and Job Well Done to Cathy Boley, Jodie Rogers, and Tammi Martin for another great Phlocking at the Phort!!

TIKI BAR RAFFLE And The Winner Is!!!!

As advertised, we held the drawing for this beautiful Tiki Bar on June 24th at the TPHC Golf Tournament. Congratulations to Monte Moore the new proud owner of the Tiki Bar. The raffle raised $525 for our charity, the Tulsa Cerebral Palsy Association. Thanks to Stacy DeMas and Mike Casillas for putting this together. Drinks anyone?

Heads Up!

Raffle News

We raised $248 in the June raffle. The donation went to A New Leaf – Handicapped Adults Nursery. A New Leaf's mission is to provide individuals with developmental disabilities with life skills, marketable job training through horticultural therapy, community-based vocational placement, and residential services to increase their independence and individual choices. They were recently vandalized and had several thousand dollars in damages.

The June raffle was OK. There seemed to be a couple of very lucky tables AND again a new member won. How does that always happen?

Thank You! to all those who donated gifts: Becky Eagan, Mike Weaver, Robbie Thames, Jack Kelsey, Jim and Jan Wollenschlager, Rebecca Land, Don and Carol Jones, Mike Casillas, Daniele Burris, Bob and Lynn Scott, Judy Striegel, Larry and Vicki Eberle, Monte and Shayne Moore, Richard and Debbie Burling, Vicky Courtney, Debbie McKisick, Jess and Mary Mitchell, Bob and Kathy Jewell, George and Carla McMillen, Dave and Neta Carrino, Gary Orton, Tammy Johnson, Tammi Martin, Kirstin Clark, Moe and Pat Hogan, Moo and Kyle, and Amy Gray.

MOKSAROK 2017

Annual Float Trip June 2nd – 3rd

By: Judy Striegel

Campers from Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and even Texas began settling in and relaxing on Friday afternoon for the 10th Annual Parrot Head Float Trip. Soon you heard the sounds of Donny Brewer playing in the outside area of the Gravel Bar.

The stage was a wooden deck overlooking the campgrounds with various games and shenanigans happening around us. There were plenty of drinks from their full service bar and a nice selection of really good food being served.

The next morning we all gathered for a relaxing float trip down the Illinois River. The water was moving nicely so there was not a lot of work involved, at least not for those of us in the front of the raft. There were plenty of stops to grab a snack, fix another drink, and to make some new friends along the way.

We made it to the take out early enough for some relaxation and the cooking of some dinner over a fire before we walked down to the Diamondhead Resort Outdoor Stage. What a great venue with good sound and plenty of room for chairs, dancing, limbo, or sitting on your tailgate. Rick Lamb and the Phin Addicts were joined on stage by Donny Brewer. They played a good variety of original and popular favorites and appeared to enjoy themselves as much as we did. If you haven't been to this venue at Diamondhead Resort you should put it on your list of places to visit. They have a concert series throughout the summer with great tent sites right next to the river all the way up to full hookups and the staff is super helpful.

FRISCO 2017

Parrot Heads from various states (and states of mind) began arriving in Frisco Texas for the Jimmy Buffett concert on Friday. Our Phlock actually fit right in with the crowd. After all it is a Buffet Concert. Who doesn't belong?

Before we knew it - It was 5 o'clock somewhere in Frisco Texas on a Friday night... Yea... Let's get this party started. Many of us gathered in the parking lot to share a beverage, strategize about Saturday, listen to some live music, and of course engage in much laughter. Soon it was time for us to retire to our beds for a few winks before Saturday's marathon.

Saturday morning was your usual overcast and sunny and man is it humid Frisco, TX day. What a perfect day for setting up five canopies and many chairs, decorating them with TPHC banners, hanging tons of decorations, and filling coolers. Before we knew it, the marathon had begun. People watching, ice shots flowing, Sharking Lot burgers, and a generally fun filled day.

The usual assortment of pirates and funky costumes began to assemble and believe it or not, that was not just our group! What a hoot.

Suddenly the finish line was near as the concert was about to begin. That little band from Texas, ZZ Top, began rocking the crowd. They had us all jumping and shouting like a Sharped Dressed Man! And then it was... JIMMY TIME!!

We danced and sang along to every Buffett tune. ZZ even stepped in with Jimmy during one of his tunes. Before we knew it, the encores ended and there it was... The finish line.

The next morning we gathered our belongings and bid farewell to Frisco. Another great adventure that will go down in history as flip flop worthy!
